

SPRING'S COMING!

NEW SUITS, DRESSES, COATS, SKIRTS, BLOUSES, WAISTS, ARE ARRIVING EACH DAYThe M. M. Wykes Co.

2335 Washington Ave.

STANDARD TELEPHONES

For Editorial, News and Society Department, Call Only Phone No.
421.For Subscription and Advertising Department, Call Phone No. 56.RANDOM REFERENCESAdvertisers must have their copy ready for the Evening Standard the evening before the day on which the advertisement is to appear in order to insure publication.Eclipse—Hundreds of local people watched the eclipse of the moon last night, the cloudless sky making perfect conditions for advantageous observation. The eclipse began about 7:20 and lasted until about 10:40.Old rags if clean will bring you 3 1/2 cents a pound at the Standard Office.Default—In the case of the Utah Association of Credit Men against H.
Heener, the default of the defendant has been entered on the records of the district court.

"Kodak Flashing-The Tripp Studio."

County Clerk L. P. Palmer of Salt Lake was an Ogden visitor yesterday afternoon. He was a witness in the case of the Mountain States Telephone company against J. J. Parker.Millinery Opening—March 13 and 14 we will have on display our extensive and elegant line of Spring Millinery. GRACE MILLINERY CO., 2343 Washington Avenue.Shupe Estate—In the estate of Peter Robert Shupe, deceased, the administrator has filed a petition in the district court asking for an order to sell certain real estate.Money to loan on diamonds, 278 25th—From New York—Mrs. J. Frank Duffy of New York is spending the week in Ogden, the guest of Mrs.
Joan W. Clark.Bed-bugs and Vermin exterminated.
Satisfaction guaranteed. Call up phone 35. Sanitary Inspector's Office.Pleads Not Guilty—In Judge J. A.
Howell's division of the district court this morning, W. C. Johnson pleaded not guilty to the charge of burglary.The information charges him with entering the residence of Ellis Flint, January 5, 1914, and stealing a set of tools. The case will be tried in April.

55—Call 55 Nickson Auto Livery—55

A public meeting, under the direction of the Home Industry Club, will be held in the room of the Ogden Retail Merchants' association in the Lewis block tomorrow afternoon.Millinery Opening, March 13 to 15, inclusive. All invited to see our new line. N. L. Spurgeon, Millinery.C. J. Prickett, general agent of the Chicago and Alton railroad, was in Ogden today.See Mitchell Bros. for monumental work. Don't pay big commissions to agents, pictures of monuments are misleading. Yard, 2003 Jefferson ave.A son was born to Mr. and Mrs.
John C. Biddulph this morning.Rose bushes for sale at 2861 Pin-tree avenue. Phone 1225.Conference—The Sunday school workers of the North Weber school will hold a conference in the Plain City meeting house tomorrow night.It is expected that more than 150 persons, representing the ten wards of the stake, will be in attendance.
A special car will be operated to Plain City by the Ogden Rapid Transit Co. which will leave the Ogden station at 7 p. m. After the meeting the workers will be given an entertainment and dance in the ward hall.Millinery Opening—You are most specially invited to inspect the latest, correct and very attractive styles in hats which will be exhibited at our spring opening Friday and Saturday, March 13 and 14. Stafford Millinery Co., 2455 Washington Ave.Old rags if clean will bring you 3 1/2 cents a pound at the Standard Office.Supt. A. F. Brewer, of the Ogden Union depot company, spent several hours in the city today.W. D. Handlin, traveling passenger agent of the Burlington route, came up from Salt Lake today and passed several hours with local railroad officials.You are cordially invited to attend the opening at the Princess Millinery March 13 and 14.In Police Court—Frank Frazene pleaded not guilty to a charge of drunkenness this morning in the municipal court and his trial was set for tomorrow morning. He was arrested last night at the corner of Twenty-third street and Washington avenue. John Olsen, a drunk, forfeited $5 bail.Return from Inspection—E. C. Calvin, vice president and general manager and E. C. Manson, general superintendent of the Oregon Short Line, passed through Ogden this morning on train No. 2 en route to Salt Lake. They have just completed an inspection trip over the whole system.Taken to Hospital—John Wilson, an old man, who has been in the county

BRAMWELL

Carries the largest and best assortment of Fountain Pens in the city—Waterman, Conklin and Wirt's. Prices $1.00 to $12.00. Everyone Guaranteed.

Do your own sewing at the

KEISTER SCHOOLSpecial Rates during the month of March.LIVELY RUNAWAY ON A STREET CONGESTED
WITH TRAFFICAn exhibition of nifty driving was seen about 9 o'clock this morning on Twenty-fourth street, when Manuel Souza, the driver of a dairy wagon, guided a runaway team from Adams avenue to the P. Richardson Feed store, west of the Federal building.
At this point the maddened animals caught up with a large wagon and endeavored to climb over it, but, caught in the running gear, were stopped. The driver jumped from the dairy wagon uninjured, but the glass front of the wagon was broken and both hind feet of one of the horses were badly cut.The runaway caused considerable excitement owing to the middle of Twenty-fourth street west of Washington avenue being closed to traffic, leaving only a narrow open space
on each side. There were a number of automobiles and other vehicles
passed by the runaway team and in
front of the postoffice, a driver of
the Harris Grocery company, drove
his horse on to the sidewalk to avoid being struck by the runaways.The case of Louise Turner against the Ogden Savings bank was submitted to the jury at 2 o'clock yesterday afternoon. The jury remained
in its quarters all night and had not
arrived at a verdict late this afternoon.There has been no report from the
jury room that a verdict cannot be reached, but Judge Howell stated
this afternoon that, if the jurors do
not agree before evening, he will call
them to the court room to ascertain whether legal questions are causing
them trouble.At 3:30 this afternoon the jury
brought in a verdict in favor of the Ogden Savings bank of no cause of action.JURY GIVES VERDICT OF NO CAUSE OF ACTIONThe case of Louise Turner against
the Ogden Savings bank was sub-
mitted to the jury at 2 o'clock yester-
day afternoon. The jury remained
in its quarters all night and had not
arrived at a verdict late this after-
noon.There has been no report from the
jury room that a verdict cannot be
reached, but Judge Howell stated
this afternoon that, if the jurors do
not agree before evening, he will call
them to the court room to ascertain
whether legal questions are causing
them trouble.At 3:30 this afternoon the jury
brought in a verdict in favor of the
Ogden Savings bank of no cause of
action.The runaway caused considerable
excitement owing to the middle of
Twenty-fourth street west of Wash-
ington avenue being closed to traf-
fic, leaving only a narrow open space
on each side. There were a num-
ber of automobiles and other vehicles
passed by the runaway team and in
front of the postoffice, a driver of
the Harris Grocery company, drove
his horse on to the sidewalk to avoid
being struck by the runaways.The case of Louise Turner against
the Ogden Savings bank was sub-
mitted to the jury at 2 o'clock yester-
day afternoon. The jury remained
in its quarters all night and had not
arrived at a verdict late this after-
noon.There has been no report from the
jury room that a verdict cannot be
reached, but Judge Howell stated
this afternoon that, if the jurors do
not agree before evening, he will call
them to the court room to ascertain
whether legal questions are causing
them trouble.At 3:30 this afternoon the jury
brought in a verdict in favor of the
Ogden Savings bank of no cause of
action.The runaway caused considerable
excitement owing to the middle of
Twenty-fourth street west of Wash-
ington avenue being closed to traf-
fic, leaving only a narrow open space
on each side. There were a num-
ber of automobiles and other vehicles
passed by the runaway team and in
front of the postoffice, a driver of
the Harris Grocery company, drove
his horse on to the sidewalk to avoid
being struck by the runaways.The case of Louise Turner against
the Ogden Savings bank was sub-
mitted to the jury at 2 o'clock yester-
day afternoon. The jury remained
in its quarters all night and had not
arrived at a verdict late this after-
noon.There has been no report from the
jury room that a verdict cannot be
reached, but Judge Howell stated
this afternoon that, if the jurors do
not agree before evening, he will call
them to the court room to ascertain
whether legal questions are causing
them trouble.At 3:30 this afternoon the jury
brought in a verdict in favor of the
Ogden Savings bank of no cause of
action.The runaway caused considerable
excitement owing to the middle of
Twenty-fourth street west of Wash-
ington avenue being closed to traf-
fic, leaving only a narrow open space
on each side. There were a num-
ber of automobiles and other vehicles
passed by the runaway team and in
front of the postoffice, a driver of
the Harris Grocery company, drove
his horse on to the sidewalk to avoid
being struck by the runaways.The case of Louise Turner against
the Ogden Savings bank was sub-
mitted to the jury at 2 o'clock yester-
day afternoon. The jury remained
in its quarters all night and had not
arrived at a verdict late this after-
noon.There has been no report from the
jury room that a verdict cannot be
reached, but Judge Howell stated
this afternoon that, if the jurors do
not agree before evening, he will call
them to the court room to ascertain
whether legal questions are causing
them trouble.At 3:30 this afternoon the jury
brought in a verdict in favor of the
Ogden Savings bank of no cause of
action.The runaway caused considerable
excitement owing to the middle of
Twenty-fourth street west of Wash-
ington avenue being closed to traf-
fic, leaving only a narrow open space
on each side. There were a num-
ber of automobiles and other vehicles
passed by the runaway team and in
front of the postoffice, a driver of
the Harris Grocery company, drove
his horse on to the sidewalk to avoid
being struck by the runaways.The case of Louise Turner against
the Ogden Savings bank was sub-
mitted to the jury at 2 o'clock yester-
day afternoon. The jury remained
in its quarters all night and had not
arrived at a verdict late this after-
noon.There has been no report from the
jury room that a verdict cannot be
reached, but Judge Howell stated
this afternoon that, if the jurors do
not agree before evening, he will call
them to the court room to ascertain
whether legal questions are causing
them trouble.At 3:30 this afternoon the jury
brought in a verdict in favor of the
Ogden Savings bank of no cause of
action.The runaway caused considerable
excitement owing to the middle of
Twenty-fourth street west of Wash-
ington avenue being closed to traf-
fic, leaving only a narrow open space
on each side. There were a num-
ber of automobiles and other vehicles
passed by the runaway team and in
front of the postoffice, a driver of
the Harris Grocery company, drove
his horse on to the sidewalk to avoid
being struck by the runaways.The case of Louise Turner against
the Ogden Savings bank was sub-
mitted to the jury at 2 o'clock yester-
day afternoon. The jury remained
in its quarters all night and had not
arrived at a verdict late this after-
noon.There has been no report from the
jury room that a verdict cannot be
reached, but Judge Howell stated
this afternoon that, if the jurors do
not agree before evening, he will call
them to the court room to ascertain
whether legal questions are causing
them trouble.At 3:30 this afternoon the jury
brought in a verdict in favor of the
Ogden Savings bank of no cause of
action.The runaway caused considerable
excitement owing to the middle of
Twenty-fourth street west of Wash-
ington avenue being closed to traf-
fic, leaving only a narrow open space
on each side. There were a num-
ber of automobiles and other vehicles
passed by the runaway team and in
front of the postoffice, a driver of
the Harris Grocery company, drove
his horse on to the sidewalk to avoid
being struck by the runaways.The case of Louise Turner against
the Ogden Savings bank was sub-
mitted to the jury at 2 o'clock yester-
day afternoon. The jury remained
in its quarters all night and had not
arrived at a verdict late this after-
noon.There has been no report from the
jury room that a verdict cannot be
reached, but Judge Howell stated
this afternoon that, if the jurors do
not agree before evening, he will call
them to the court room to ascertain
whether legal questions are causing
them trouble.At 3:30 this afternoon the jury
brought in a verdict in favor of the
Ogden Savings bank of no cause of
action.The runaway caused considerable
excitement owing to the middle of
Twenty-fourth street west of Wash-
ington avenue being closed to traf-
fic, leaving only a narrow open space
on each side. There were a num-
ber of automobiles and other vehicles
passed by the runaway team and in
front of the postoffice, a driver of
the Harris Grocery company, drove
his horse on to the sidewalk to avoid
being struck by the runaways.The case of Louise Turner against
the Ogden Savings bank was sub-
mitted to the jury at 2 o'clock yester-
day afternoon. The jury remained
in its quarters all night and had not
arrived at a verdict late this after-
noon.There has been no report from the
jury room that a verdict cannot be
reached, but Judge Howell stated
this afternoon that, if the jurors do
not agree before evening, he will call
them to the court room to ascertain
whether legal questions are causing
them trouble.At 3:30 this afternoon the jury
brought in a verdict in favor of the
Ogden Savings bank of no cause of
action.The runaway caused considerable
excitement owing to the middle of
Twenty-fourth street west of Wash-
ington avenue being closed to traf-
fic, leaving only a narrow open space
on each side. There were a num-
ber of automobiles and other vehicles
passed by the runaway team and in
front of the postoffice, a driver of
the Harris Grocery company, drove
his horse on to the sidewalk to avoid
being struck by the runaways.The case of Louise Turner against
the Ogden Savings bank was sub-
mitted to the jury at 2 o'clock yester-
day afternoon. The jury remained
in its quarters all night and had not
arrived at a verdict late this after-
noon.There has been no report from the
jury room that a verdict cannot be
reached, but Judge Howell stated
this afternoon that, if the jurors do
not agree before evening, he will call
them to the court room to ascertain
whether legal questions are causing
them trouble.At 3:30 this afternoon the jury
brought in a verdict in favor of the
Ogden Savings bank of no cause of
action.The runaway caused considerable
excitement owing to the middle of
Twenty-fourth street west of Wash-
ington avenue being closed to traf-
fic, leaving only a narrow open space
on each side. There were a num-
ber of automobiles and other vehicles
passed by the runaway team and in
front of the postoffice, a driver of
the Harris Grocery company, drove
his horse on to the sidewalk to avoid
being struck by the runaways.The case of Louise Turner against
the Ogden Savings bank was sub-
mitted to the jury at 2 o'clock yester-
day afternoon. The jury remained
in its quarters all night and had not
arrived at a verdict late this after-
noon.There has been no report from the
jury room that a verdict cannot be
reached, but Judge Howell stated
this afternoon that, if the jurors do
not agree before evening, he will call
them to the court room to ascertain
whether legal questions are causing
them trouble.At 3:30 this afternoon the jury
brought in a verdict in favor of the
Ogden Savings bank of no cause of
action.The runaway caused considerable
excitement owing to the middle of
Twenty-fourth street west of Wash-
ington avenue being closed to traf-
fic, leaving only a narrow open space
on each side. There were a num-
ber of automobiles and other vehicles
passed by the runaway team and in
front of the postoffice, a driver of
the Harris Grocery company, drove
his horse on to the sidewalk to avoid
being struck by the runaways.The case of Louise Turner against
the Ogden Savings bank was sub-
mitted to the jury at 2 o'clock yester-
day afternoon. The jury remained
in its quarters all night and had not
arrived at a verdict late this after-
noon.There has been no report from the
jury room that a verdict cannot be
reached, but Judge Howell stated
this afternoon that, if the jurors do
not agree before evening, he will call
them to the court room to ascertain
whether legal questions are causing
them trouble.At 3:30 this afternoon the jury
brought in a verdict in favor of the
Ogden Savings bank of no cause of
action.The runaway caused considerable
excitement owing to the middle of
Twenty-fourth street west of Wash-
ington avenue being closed to traf-
fic, leaving only a narrow open space
on each side. There were a num-
ber of automobiles and other vehicles
passed by the runaway team and in
front of the postoffice, a driver of
the Harris Grocery company, drove
his horse on to the sidewalk to avoid
being struck by the runaways.The case of Louise Turner against
the Ogden Savings bank was sub-
mitted to the jury at 2 o'clock yester-
day afternoon. The jury remained
in its quarters all night and had not
arrived at a verdict late this after-
noon.There has been no report from the
jury room that a verdict cannot be
reached, but Judge Howell stated
this afternoon that, if the jurors do
not agree before evening, he will call
them to the court room to ascertain
whether legal questions are causing
them trouble.At 3:30 this afternoon the jury
brought in a verdict in favor of the
Ogden Savings bank of no cause of
action.The runaway caused considerable
excitement owing to the middle of
Twenty-fourth street west of Wash-
ington avenue being closed to traf-
fic, leaving only a narrow open space
on each side. There were a num-
ber of automobiles and other vehicles
passed by the runaway team and in
front of the postoffice, a driver of
the Harris Grocery company, drove
his horse on to the sidewalk to avoid
being struck by the runaways.The case of Louise Turner against
the Ogden Savings bank was sub-
mitted to the jury at 2 o'clock yester-
day afternoon. The jury remained
in its quarters all night and had not
arrived at a verdict late this after-
noon.There has been no report from the
jury room that a verdict cannot be
reached, but Judge Howell stated
this afternoon that, if the jurors do
not agree before evening, he will call
them to the court room to ascertain
whether legal questions are causing
them trouble.At 3:30 this afternoon the jury
brought in a verdict in favor of the
Ogden Savings bank of no cause of
action.The runaway caused considerable
excitement owing to the middle of
Twenty-fourth street west of Wash-
ington avenue being closed to traf-
fic, leaving only a narrow open space
on each side. There were a num-
ber of automobiles and other vehicles
passed by the runaway team and in
front of the postoffice, a driver of
the Harris Grocery company, drove
his horse on to the sidewalk to avoid
being struck by the runaways.The case of Louise Turner against
the Ogden Savings bank was sub-
mitted to the jury at 2 o'clock yester-
day afternoon. The jury remained
in its quarters all night and had not
arrived at a verdict late this after-
noon.There has been no report from the
jury room that a verdict cannot be
reached, but Judge Howell stated
this afternoon that, if the jurors do
not agree before evening, he will call
them to the court room to ascertain
whether legal questions are causing
them trouble.At 3:30 this afternoon the jury
brought in a verdict in favor of the
Ogden Savings bank of no cause of
action.The runaway caused considerable
excitement owing to the middle of
Twenty-fourth street west of Wash-
ington avenue being closed to traf-
fic, leaving only a narrow open space
on each side. There were a num-
ber of automobiles and other vehicles
passed by the runaway team and in
front of the postoffice, a driver of
the Harris Grocery company, drove
his horse on to the sidewalk to avoid
being struck by the runaways.The case of Louise Turner against
the Ogden Savings bank was sub-
mitted to the jury at 2 o'clock yester-
day afternoon. The jury remained
in its quarters all night and had not
arrived at a verdict late this after-
noon.There has been no report from the
jury room that a verdict cannot be
reached, but Judge Howell stated
this afternoon that, if the jurors do
not agree before evening, he will call
them to the court room to ascertain
whether legal questions are causing
them trouble.At 3:30 this afternoon the jury
brought in a verdict in favor of the
Ogden Savings bank of no cause of
action.The runaway caused considerable
excitement owing to the middle of
Twenty-fourth street west of Wash-
ington avenue being closed to traf-
fic, leaving only a narrow open space
on each side. There were a num-
ber of automobiles and other vehicles
passed by the runaway team and in
front of the postoffice, a driver of
the Harris Grocery company, drove
his horse on to the sidewalk to avoid
being struck by the runaways.The case of Louise Turner against
the Ogden Savings bank was sub-
mitted to the jury at 2 o'clock yester-
day afternoon. The jury remained
in its quarters all night and had not
arrived at a verdict late this after-
noon.There has been no report from the
jury room that a verdict cannot be
reached, but Judge Howell stated
this afternoon that, if the jurors do
not agree before evening, he will call
them to the court room to ascertain
whether legal questions are causing
them trouble.At 3:30 this afternoon the jury
brought in a verdict in favor of the
Ogden Savings bank of no cause of
action.The runaway caused considerable
excitement owing to the middle of
Twenty-fourth street west of Wash-
ington avenue being closed to traf-
fic, leaving only a narrow open space
on each side. There were a num-
ber of automobiles and other vehicles
passed by the runaway team and in
front of the postoffice, a driver of
the Harris Grocery company, drove
his horse on to the sidewalk to avoid
being struck by the runaways.The case of Louise Turner against
the Ogden Savings bank was sub-
mitted to the jury at 2 o'clock yester-
day afternoon. The jury remained
in its quarters all night and had not
arrived at a verdict late this after-
noon.There has been no report from the
jury room that a verdict cannot be
reached, but Judge Howell stated
this afternoon that, if the jurors do
not agree before evening, he will call
them to the court room to ascertain
whether legal questions are causing
them trouble.At 3:30 this afternoon the jury
brought in a verdict in favor of the
Ogden Savings bank of no cause of
action.The runaway caused considerable
excitement owing to the middle of
Twenty-fourth street west of Wash-
ington avenue being closed to traf-
fic, leaving only a narrow open space
on each side. There were a num-
ber of automobiles and other vehicles
passed by the runaway team and in
front of the postoffice, a driver of
the Harris Grocery company, drove
his horse on to the sidewalk to avoid
being struck by the runaways.The case of Louise Turner against
the Ogden Savings bank was sub-
mitted to the jury at 2 o'clock yester-
day afternoon. The jury remained
in its quarters all night and had not
arrived at a verdict late this after-
noon.There has been no report from the
jury room that a verdict cannot be
reached, but Judge Howell stated
this afternoon that, if the jurors do
not agree before evening, he will call
them to the court room to ascertain
whether legal questions are causing
them trouble.At 3:30 this afternoon the jury
brought in a verdict in favor of the
Ogden Savings bank of no cause of
action.The runaway caused considerable
excitement owing to the middle of
Twenty-fourth street west of Wash-
ington avenue being closed to traf-
fic, leaving only a narrow open space
on each side. There were a num-
ber of automobiles and other vehicles
passed by the runaway team and in
front of the postoffice, a driver of
the Harris Grocery company, drove
his horse on to the sidewalk to avoid
being struck by the runaways.The case of Louise Turner against
the Ogden Savings bank was sub-
mitted to the jury at 2 o'clock yester-
day afternoon. The jury remained
in its quarters all night and had not
arrived at a verdict late this after-
noon.There has been no report from the
jury room that a verdict cannot be
reached, but Judge Howell stated
this afternoon that, if the jurors do
not agree before evening, he will call
them to the court room to ascertain
whether legal questions are causing
them trouble.At 3:30 this afternoon the jury
brought in a verdict in favor of the
Ogden Savings bank of no cause of
action.The runaway caused considerable
excitement owing to the middle of
Twenty-fourth street west of Wash-
ington avenue being closed to traf-
fic, leaving only a narrow open space
on each side. There were a num-
ber of automobiles and other vehicles
passed by the runaway team and in
front of the postoffice, a driver of
the Harris Grocery company, drove
his horse on to the sidewalk to avoid
being struck by the runaways.The case of Louise Turner against
the Ogden Savings bank was sub-
mitted to the jury at 2 o'clock yester-
day afternoon. The jury remained
in its quarters all night and had not
arrived at a verdict late this after-
noon.There has been no report from the
jury room that a verdict cannot be
reached, but Judge Howell stated
this afternoon that, if the jurors do
not agree before evening, he will call
them to the court room to ascertain
whether legal questions are causing
them trouble.At 3:30 this afternoon the jury
brought in a verdict in favor of the
Ogden Savings bank of no cause of
action.The runaway caused considerable
excitement owing to the middle of
Twenty-fourth street west of Wash-
ington avenue being closed to traf-
fic, leaving only a narrow open space
on each side. There were a num-
ber of automobiles and other vehicles
passed by the runaway team and in
front of the postoffice, a driver of
the Harris Grocery company, drove
his horse on to the sidewalk to avoid
being struck by the runaways.The case of Louise Turner against
the Ogden Savings bank was sub-
mitted to the jury at 2 o'clock yester-
day afternoon. The jury remained
in its quarters all night and had not
arrived at a verdict late this after-
noon.There has been no report from the
jury room that a verdict cannot be
reached, but Judge Howell stated
this afternoon that, if the jurors do
not agree before evening, he will call
them to the court room to ascertain
whether legal questions are causing
them trouble.At 3:30 this afternoon the jury
brought in a verdict in favor of the
Ogden Savings bank of no cause of
action.The runaway caused considerable
excitement owing to the middle of
Twenty-fourth street west of Wash-
ington avenue being closed to traf-
fic, leaving only a narrow open space
on each side. There were a num-
ber of automobiles and other vehicles
passed by the runaway team and in
front of the postoffice, a driver of
the Harris Grocery company, drove
his horse on to the sidewalk to avoid
being struck by the runaways.The case of Louise Turner against
the Ogden Savings bank was sub-
mitted to the jury at 2 o'clock yester-
day afternoon. The jury remained
in its quarters all night and had not
arrived at a verdict late this after-
noon.There has been no report from the
jury room that a verdict cannot be
reached, but Judge Howell stated
this afternoon that, if the jurors do
not agree before evening, he will call
them to the court room to ascertain
whether legal questions are causing
them trouble.At 3:30 this afternoon the jury
brought in a verdict in favor of the
Ogden Savings bank of no cause of
action.The runaway caused considerable
excitement owing to the middle of
Twenty-fourth street west of Wash-
ington avenue being closed to traf-
fic, leaving only a narrow open space
on each side. There were a num-
ber of automobiles and other vehicles
passed by the runaway team and in
front of the postoffice, a driver of
the Harris Grocery company, drove
his horse on to the sidewalk to avoid
being struck by the runaways.The case of Louise Turner against
the Ogden Savings bank was sub-
mitted to the jury at 2 o'clock yester-
day afternoon. The jury remained
in its quarters all night and had not
arrived at a verdict late this after-
noon.There has been no report from the
jury room that a verdict cannot be
reached, but Judge Howell stated
this afternoon that, if the jurors do
not agree before evening, he will call
them to the court room to ascertain
whether legal questions are causing
them trouble.At 3:30 this afternoon the jury
brought in a verdict in favor of the
Ogden Savings bank of no cause of
action.The runaway caused considerable
excitement owing to the middle of
Twenty-fourth street west of Wash-
ington avenue being closed to traf-
fic, leaving only a narrow open space
on each side. There were a num-
ber of automobiles and other vehicles